ABOUT THIS PUBLICATION

© 2021 The Lady Musgrave Trust ABN 83 010 612 272

The Handy Guide of Women's Support Services Regional Queensland (2024-2026) is a free information and service directory for Queensland women in need, produced by The Lady Musgrave Trust. This service directory is a one-stop-shop of regional Queensland organisations and services that support regional Queensland women, with a focus on homelessness and services to assist women and their children who have been affected by domestic and family violence. It is a partner resource to the Brisbane and surrounds edition.

Please also check out the online version of The Handy Guide at www.thehandyguide.com.au which can be accessed anywhere and anytime with a mobile device and connection to the internet and can be easily searched by postcode or topic. The Infoxchange database powering the online Handy Guide is regularly checked to make sure it is up-to-date.

If you are an organisation that uses The Handy Guide, please help to keep the online version current by updating your organisation's information at any time online (just visit www.thehandyguide.com.au, scroll to the bottom of the page and click on "Update your listing"). This information will be used to provide vital current information to women at risk and will help us prepare for our next hard copy edition.

This essential guide to assist Queensland women in need is distributed in a manner designed to reduce The Lady Musgrave Trust's footprint. It is current as at the date of publication. The Lady Musgrave Trust does not warrant the accuracy of information contained in The Handy Guide and users should make their own separate enquiries regarding the providers of services as appropriate.

About The Lady Musgrave Trust

The Lady Musgrave Trust's vision is to alleviate homelessness for young Queensland women and their children so they can live safe and meaningful lives.

Since 1885, The Lady Musgrave Trust has provided practical solutions that transform lives and transition young Queensland women who are experiencing or at risk of homelessness to a life of opportunity and prosperity. We do this by providing them with a safe place to live and access to education and employment opportunities.

The Lady Musgrave Trust is a small charity that delivers on its mission by working in partnership with organisations and individuals who share our commitment to all Queensland women living in safety.

The Lady Musgrave Trust is grateful for the assistance of our supporters who funded consultation with users to ensure the guide is as effective and easy to navigate as possible, and printing and distribution so the Guide is widely available for women in need, and as a ready reference for the support workers who assist them.

We're pleased to once again provide The Handy Guide (both the Brisbane and Surrounds and Regional Queensland editions) free of charge so that women can quickly identify the support they need, when they need it.

For more information about The Lady Musgrave Trust or to order hard copies of the Brisbane, Ipswich, Logan and The Redlands or Regional Queensland editions of The Handy Guide please visit www.lady-musgravetrust.org.au. To visit the online Handy Guide, please go to: www.thehandy-guide.com.au

Our Handy Guide partners and supporters

The Lady Musgrave Trust is only able to deliver the life-saving services we do because of the partnerships we enjoy with generous organisations and individuals who share our commitment to working towards a Queensland where all women can live in safety.

We are proud of our track record of nurturing long standing partnerships that are mutually beneficial with philanthropists, corporates, government agencies and community groups.

If you'd like to find out how your organisation can partner with us to provide life-changing and practical services to young women and children when they need it most, please get in touch by emailing office@ladymusgravetrust.org.au

The following organisations have generously supported user testing, designing, printing or distribution costs for both of the 2024-2026 editions of The Handy Guide (Brisbane, Logan, Ipswich and the Redlands Coast and Regional Queensland).

Contents - Services by Region

How to use this Guide

Due to space limitations, this Guide is focused on providing information about assistance available in regional Queensland in relation to housing, homelessness and domestic and family violence intervention and support by organisations and services which support women throughout Regional Queensland.

Many organisations offer services in multiple locations across the State. These organisations are listed in the section titled “Queensland-Wide Services” (pages 9 – 26). This includes charities operating in multiple regions and sites, or providing many different types of services, including State and Federal Government departments.

Local listings are included in each regional section.

To ensure you can identify the best services for you:

- Refer to the Queensland-Wide Services section for organisations which operate across Queensland or nationally but may also provide local assistance
- Refer to the relevant regional section to identify services local to you
- You can also visit the online HandyGuide at www.thehandyguide.com.au to search for services by type or postcode to identify the most suitable service to help you.

For information about services in Brisbane, Ipswich, Logan and the Redlands Coast, please refer to the The Handy Guide of Women’s Support Services Brisbane, Ipswich, Logan and The Redlands Coast or visit www.thehandyguide.com.au

COMPREHENSIVE SUPPORT SERVICES

The following organisations have a range of support services at different locations throughout Queensland. Support provided depends upon the location and can include support to identify and obtain suitable housing, assistance with domestic and family violence, legal issues, financial counselling and advice, material aid including food parcels, showers and laundry services and No Interest Loans (NILs).

For current local information for these services in your region check out www.thehandyguide.com.au

You may need to first make an enquiry/ request and remember to bring shopping bags if collecting food parcels. Some organisations may require you to be a permanent resident of the region.

Other requirements may include ID with current address or concession card.

Many organisations have “assistance finders” located on their website, which are helpful to confirm the services available and the operating hours for the closest location to you.

FOOD, WELFARE AND EMERGENCY RELIEF

Many organisations support their communities by providing a range of services, including community and drop-in centres, non-judgemental support and services such as meals, food parcels, small amounts of emergency financial assistance or showers, laundry services and free haircuts.

Different organisations have different requirements – such as living in a particular region or providing proof of identity. You may need to contact the organisation to confirm eligibility before visiting. Details for organisations providing food, welfare and emergency relief in your areas are listed on page 14 and local services are included within each region of the Guide.

Councils also usually have details of support services in their area (refer p.24).

PUBLIC DENTAL SERVICES

Public dental services are delivered via a range of facilities including mobile dental and community dental clinics. For adults and their dependents to be eligible for free dental care they must be a Queensland resident and receive benefits from an applicable concession card. To learn more about the public dental services available in your region go to www.qld.gov.au/services/oral-eye-ear/dental-services.

PUBLIC TOILET MAP

The National Public Toilet map (online or download the app) provides information on over 23,000 publicly available toilets across Australia including facilities like showers, baby change and sharps disposal. Visit www.toiletmap.gov.au.

HOMELESSNESS

HOMELESS HOTLINE 1800 474 753

Your first contact if you are experiencing homelessness and require emergency housing assistance. The Homeless Hotline is run by the Queensland Government and provides information about where you can find support, accommodation meals or other assistance.

QUEENSLAND HOMELESS INFORMATION PLATFORM

The Queensland Homeless Information Platform (QHIP) is a secure online database that holds personal information that you have willingly shared.

Many housing providers access the Homeless Hotline's QHIP. They use the database to assess your needs and match them with the most appropriate accommodation and support services. It means you only have to tell your story and share your details once.

The QHIP database is administered by the Department of Housing and cannot be accessed by other Government departments, but may be accessed online by Queensland homelessness service providers in order for them to fulfil their duties to assist you.

It is completely up to you how much information you share with QHIP. Your personal information will not be shared unless you consent to do so. The information you share may influence how your housing need is prioritised.

For more information go to www.housing.qld.gov.au or call the Homeless hotline on 1800 474 753.

HOUSING ASSISTANCE

DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING – HOUSING SERVICE CENTRES

For information about homes and housing, call 137 468, refer to housing.qld.gov.au or contact a Queensland Department of Housing Service Centre (refer to the relevant regional listing) for contact details for the Housing Service Centre closest to you to:

- Apply for housing assistance including social and community housing
- Seek emergency housing support
- Request cost of living support
- Find housing support
- Get help with private renting including RentConnect
- Enquire about bond loans

Housing Service Centres and Government Agent Programs contact details are located in regions throughout Queensland. Contact details appear in this Guide, in the relevant region in which they are located.

TYPES OF HOUSING ASSISTANCE:

EMERGENCY AND SHORT-TERM HOUSING

Emergency and short-term housing offers temporary short-term accommodation for up to three months while a more permanent housing solution is sought. Accommodation types vary by provider, as do eligibility criteria, costs, and availability.

TRANSITIONAL HOUSING

Transitional housing is a form of social housing offered by community housing providers which allows people to stabilise their circumstances before moving into longer term housing.

SOCIAL AND COMMUNITY HOUSING

The Queensland Government through the Department of Housing and not-for-profit organisations provides access to affordable housing for people on lower incomes. Eligibility may include a mix of some or all of the following:

- Social housing (including Indigenous Housing & Homelessness programs) – rental for low to moderate income families and individuals
- Community housing – those with low incomes providing income based rental accommodation
- Affordable housing – those with a moderate income who are in housing stress

SOCIAL HOUSING REGISTER

The Social Housing Register is a record of applications for public or community housing. Contact your nearest Department of Housing Service Centre (contact details are listed by each region in this Guide) to enquire about your eligibility to be considered for social or community housing or to discuss other housing options which may be available to you.

RESIDENTIAL SERVICES: INCLUDING ROOMING ACCOMMODATION, BOARDING HOUSES, RENTALS FOR SENIORS, SUPPORTED ACCOMMODATION

If you pay rent for a room and share facilities, such as a kitchen, bathroom, dining room or common room, this is called rooming accommodation. There are several types of residential services you can consider when looking for a place to live. These include:

- Boarding housing – usually accommodation only
- Rentals for seniors – known as aged rentals – these usually include meals
- Supported accommodation – includes food and personal care services for people with particular needs.

The Public Register of Residential Services lists the locations of residential services, boarding houses, aged rentals and supported accommodation that are registered with the Queensland Department of Housing www.housing.qld.gov.au/residential-services

TEMPORARY ACCOMMODATION/HOLIDAY LETTING

Some accommodation such as hotel/motels are considered holiday letting (even if you're not on holiday) and you will have different rights to a tenancy if you are staying there. Long term stays in a caravan park may be covered under the Residential Tenancies and Rooming Accommodation Act (refer to QSTARS contact details below for further information).

Accommodation may be charged on a nightly basis and some accommodation (such as hostels) may require identity papers such as a passport. Enquire before arrival to ensure you will be able to stay.

SUPPORT WITH TENANCIES AND RENTING

The following organisations can provide advice and assistance to people renting a property.

The Residential Tenancies Authority www.rta.qld.gov.au or call 1300 366 311 is a Queensland Government authority that helps make renting work for everyone. The RTA provides tenancy information and support, bond management dispute resolution investigations and prosecution and education services.

QSTARS is managed by Tenants Queensland and is a free independent advice and referral service for all Queensland renters www.qstars.org.au or call 1300 744 263

The Department of Housing www.housing.qld.gov.au or call 13 QGOV 13 74 68 can assist people in the private rental marketing in a number of ways, including the RentConnect service, financial assistance with renting, bond loans and rental grants, rental security subsidy and No Interest Loans (NILs) housing loans. Housing Service Centres may be also able to provide advice regarding securing private rental properties. Information for your nearest Housing Service Centre is located by region in this Guide.

VOTING: HAVE YOUR SAY

Voting is your opportunity to make your voice heard. If you are experiencing homelessness, you can enrol under the No Fixed Address category. Call 13 23 26 or go to www.aec.gov.au to organise your enrolment. Voting is compulsory for all Queenslanders over 18 and if you don't vote you may receive a fine.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT CONTACT DETAILS

Local Government and Indigenous Councils may provide a range of services to help people experiencing homelessness.

The Queensland Local Government Directory www.local-government.qld.gov.au/for-the-community/local-government-directory provides contact details and locality maps for Queensland's 77 local governments. You can search in the Queensland Local Government Directory to access:

- Contact details for all councils in Queensland
- Details of council officers, including mayors, CEO and councillor officers
- Link to council websites to find further comprehensive information including council services, employment opportunities and details of events.

RESOURCES, INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATION

PUBLIC LIBRARIES/ INDIGENOUS KNOWLEDGE CENTRES

Public libraries are located throughout Local Government/Council areas and provide access to information about Council services, a wide range of resources, and useful services including access to television, computer, Wi-Fi and internet. Different operating hours apply for each library. Please confirm operating hours before visiting.

Indigenous Knowledge Centres (IKC) are public information hubs and library services owned and operated by Indigenous Councils with assistance provided by the Library Board of Queensland. IKC coordinate a range of programs and activities that support the documentation, maintenance and preservation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander languages. Activities may include recording language, conducting language workshops or cultural programs in their communities. Contact details for libraries and IKC are provided in relevant regional listings of this Guide.

TELECOMMUNICATION SERVICES/ WI-FI

Telstra payphones now offer free standard national and mobile calls. Telstra also provides free Telstra Wi-Fi at all enabled payphones around Australia. To find the closest free payphone to you visit www.telstra.com.au/find-us?search=payphone

Free Wi-Fi services can be obtained at most shopping centres, and many Council facilities including parks and libraries in your community. Many businesses such as fast-food restaurants provide free Wi-Fi for customers.

QUEENSLAND-WIDE SERVICES

Don't forget to check if there are other services that can support you in the Queensland-Wide Services section (pages 9-26).

Many organisations offer services in multiple locations across Queensland. These statewide organisations are listed in the section titled “Queensland-Wide Services” (pages 9 – 26). This includes charities operating in multiple locations, or providing many different types of services, including State and Federal Government departments. You can also visit the online HandyGuide at www.thehandyguide.com.au to search for services by type or postcode to identify the most suitable service to help you.

To ensure you can identify the best services for you:

- Refer to Queensland- Wide Services section (pages 9-26) for organisations which operate across Queensland or nationally but may also provide local assistance.
- Refer to the relevant Regional section to identify services local to you.

LIBRARIES AND INDIGENOUS KNOWLEDGE CENTRES

Public libraries are located throughout Local Government/Council areas and provide access to information about Council services, a wide range of resources, and useful services including access to television, computer, Wi-Fi and internet. Different operating hours apply for each library. Please confirm operating hours before visiting.

Indigenous Knowledge Centres (IKC) are public information hubs and library services owned and operated by Indigenous Councils with assistance provided by the Library Board of Queensland. IKC coordinate a range of programs and activities that support the documentation, maintenance and preservation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander languages. Activities may include recording language, conducting language workshops or cultural programs in their communities. Contact libraries and IKC directly for local operating hours or for more information go to Public Libraries connect at www.pconnect.slq.qld.gov.au to confirm opening hours.

QUEENSLAND-WIDE SERVICES

Don't forget to check if there are other services that can support you in the Queensland-Wide Services section (pages 9-26).

Many organisations offer services in multiple locations across Queensland. These statewide organisations are listed in the section titled “Queensland-Wide Services” (pages 9 – 26). This includes charities operating in multiple locations, or providing many different types of services, and State and Federal Government departments. You can also visit the online HandyGuide at www.thehandyguide.com.au to search for services by type or postcode to identify the most suitable service to help you.

To ensure you can identify the best services for you:

- Refer to Queensland- Wide Services section (pages 9-26) for organisations which operate across Queensland or nationally but may also provide local assistance.
- Refer to the relevant Regional section to identify services local to you.

LIBRARIES AND INDIGENOUS KNOWLEDGE CENTRES

Public libraries are located throughout Local Government/Council areas and provide access to information about Council services, a wide range of resources, and useful services including access to television, computer, Wi-Fi and internet. Different operating hours apply for each library. Please confirm operating hours before visiting.

Indigenous Knowledge Centres (IKC) are public information hubs and library services owned and operated by Indigenous Councils with assistance provided by the Library Board of Queensland. IKC coordinate a range of programs and activities that support the documentation, maintenance and preservation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander languages. Activities may include recording language, conducting language workshops or cultural programs in their communities. Contact libraries and IKC directly for local operating hours or for information go to Public Libraries connect at www.plconnect.slq.qld.gov.au to confirm opening hours.

QUEENSLAND-WIDE SERVICES

Don't forget to check if there are other services that can support you in the Queensland-Wide Services section (pages 9-26).

Many organisations offer services in multiple locations across Queensland. These statewide organisations are listed in the section titled “Queensland-Wide Services” (pages 9 – 26). This includes charities operating in multiple locations, or providing many different types of services, and State and Federal Government departments. You can also visit the online HandyGuide at www.thehandyguide.com.au to search for services by type or postcode to identify the most suitable service to help you.

To ensure you can identify the best services for you:

- Refer to Queensland- Wide Services section (pages 9-26) for organisations which operate across Queensland or nationally but may also provide local assistance.
- Refer to the relevant Regional section to identify services local to you.

LIBRARIES AND INDIGENOUS KNOWLEDGE CENTRES

Public libraries are located throughout Local Government/Council areas and provide access to information about Council services, a wide range of resources, and useful services including access to television, computer, Wi-Fi and internet. Different operating hours apply for each library. Please confirm operating hours before visiting.

Indigenous Knowledge Centres (IKC) are public information hubs and library services owned and operated by Indigenous Councils with assistance provided by the Library Board of Queensland. IKC coordinate a range of programs and activities that support the documentation, maintenance and preservation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander languages. Activities may include recording language, conducting language workshops or cultural programs in their communities. Contact libraries and IKC directly for local operating hours or for more information go to Public Libraries connect at www.plconnect.slq.qld.gov.au to confirm opening hours.

QUEENSLAND-WIDE SERVICES

Don't forget to check if there are other services that can support you in the Queensland-Wide Services section (pages 9-26).

Many organisations offer services in multiple locations across Queensland. These statewide organisations are listed in the section titled “Queensland-Wide Services” (pages 9 – 26). This includes charities operating in multiple locations, or providing many different types of services, and State and Federal Government departments. You can also visit the online HandyGuide at www.thehandyguide.com.au to search for services by type or postcode to identify the most suitable service to help you.

To ensure you can identify the best services for you:

- Refer to Queensland- Wide Services section (pages 9-26) for organisations which operate across Queensland or nationally but may also provide local assistance.
- Refer to the relevant Regional section to identify services local to you.

QUEENSLAND-WIDE SERVICES

Don't forget to check if there are other services that can support you in the Queensland-Wide Services section (pages 9-26).

Many organisations offer services in multiple locations across Queensland. These statewide organisations are listed in the section titled “Queensland-Wide Services” (pages 9 – 26). This includes charities operating in multiple locations, or providing many different types of services, and State and Federal Government departments. You can also visit the online HandyGuide at www.thehandyguide.com.au to search for services by type or postcode to identify the most suitable service to help you.

To ensure you can identify the best services for you:

- Refer to Queensland- Wide Services section (pages 9-26) for organisations which operate across Queensland or nationally but may also provide local assistance.
- Refer to the relevant Regional section to identify services local to you.

QUEENSLAND-WIDE SERVICES

Don't forget to check if there are other services that can support you in the Queensland-Wide Services section (pages 9-26).

Many organisations offer services in multiple locations across Queensland. These statewide organisations are listed in the section titled “Queensland-Wide Services” (pages 9 – 26). This includes charities operating in multiple locations, or providing many different types of services, and State and Federal Government departments. You can also visit the online HandyGuide at www.thehandyguide.com.au to search for services by type or postcode to identify the most suitable service to help you.

To ensure you can identify the best services for you:

- Refer to Queensland- Wide Services section (pages 9-26) for organisations which operate across Queensland or nationally but may also provide local assistance.
- Refer to the relevant Regional section to identify services local to you.

LIBRARIES AND INDIGENOUS KNOWLEDGE CENTRES

Public libraries are located throughout Local Government/Council areas and provide access to information about Council services, a wide range of resources, and useful services including access to television, computer, Wi-Fi and internet. Different operating hours apply for each library. Please confirm operating hours before visiting.

Indigenous Knowledge Centres (IKC) are public information hubs and library services owned and operated by Indigenous Councils with assistance provided by the Library Board of Queensland. IKC coordinate a range of programs and activities that support the documentation, maintenance and preservation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander languages. Activities may include recording language, conducting language workshops or cultural programs in their communities. Contact libraries and IKC directly for local operating hours or for more information go to Public Libraries connect at www.plconnect.siq.qld.gov.au to confirm opening hours.

QUEENSLAND-WIDE SERVICES

Don't forget to check if there are other services that can support you in the Queensland-Wide Services section (pages 9-26).

Many organisations offer services in multiple locations across Queensland. These statewide organisations are listed in the section titled “Queensland-Wide Services” (pages 9 – 26). This includes charities operating in multiple locations, or providing many different types of services, and State and Federal Government departments. You can also visit the online HandyGuide at www.thehandyguide.com.au to search for services by type or postcode to identify the most suitable service to help you.

To ensure you can identify the best services for you:

- Refer to Queensland- Wide Services section (pages 9-26) for organisations which operate across Queensland or nationally but may also provide local assistance.
- Refer to the relevant Regional section to identify services local to you.

QUEENSLAND-WIDE SERVICES

Don't forget to check if there are other services that can support you in the Queensland-Wide Services section (pages 9-26).

Many organisations offer services in multiple locations across Queensland. These statewide organisations are listed in the section titled “Queensland-Wide Services” (pages 9 – 26). This includes charities operating in multiple locations, or providing many different types of services, and State and Federal Government departments. You can also visit the online HandyGuide at www.thehandyguide.com.au to search for services by type or postcode to identify the most suitable service to help you.

To ensure you can identify the best services for you:

- Refer to Queensland- Wide Services section (pages 9-26) for organisations which operate across Queensland or nationally but may also provide local assistance.
- Refer to the relevant Regional section to identify services local to you.

LIBRARIES AND INDIGENOUS KNOWLEDGE CENTRES

Public libraries are located throughout Local Government/Council areas and provide access to information about Council services, a wide range of resources, and useful services including access to television, computer, Wi-Fi and internet. Different operating hours apply for each library. Please confirm operating hours before visiting.

Indigenous Knowledge Centres (IKC) are public information hubs and library services owned and operated by Indigenous Councils with assistance provided by the Library Board of Queensland. IKC coordinate a range of programs and activities that support the documentation, maintenance and preservation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander languages. Activities may include recording language, conducting language workshops or cultural programs in their communities. Contact libraries and IKC directly for local operating hours or for more information go to Public Libraries connect at www.pconnect.slq.qld.gov.au to confirm opening hours.

QUEENSLAND-WIDE SERVICES

Don't forget to check if there are other services that can support you in the Queensland-Wide Services section (pages 9-26).

Many organisations offer services in multiple locations across Queensland. These statewide organisations are listed in the section titled “Queensland-Wide Services” (pages 9 – 26). This includes charities operating in multiple locations, or providing many different types of services, and State and Federal Government departments. You can also visit the online HandyGuide at www.thehandyguide.com.au to search for services by type or postcode to identify the most suitable service to help you.

To ensure you can identify the best services for you:

- Refer to Queensland- Wide Services section (pages 9-26) for organisations which operate across Queensland or nationally but may also provide local assistance.
- Refer to the relevant Regional section to identify services local to you.

LIBRARIES AND INDIGENOUS KNOWLEDGE CENTRES

Public libraries are located throughout Local Government/Council areas and provide access to information about Council services, a wide range of resources, and useful services including access to television, computer, Wi-Fi and internet. Different operating hours apply for each library. Please confirm operating hours before visiting.

Indigenous Knowledge Centres (IKC) are public information hubs and library services owned and operated by Indigenous Councils with assistance provided by the Library Board of Queensland. IKC coordinate a range of programs and activities that support the documentation, maintenance and preservation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander languages. Activities may include recording language, conducting language workshops or cultural programs in their communities. Contact libraries and IKC directly for local operating hours or for more information go to Public Libraries connect at www.plconnect.slq.qld.gov.au to confirm opening hours.

QUEENSLAND-WIDE SERVICES

Don't forget to check if there are other services that can support you in the Queensland-Wide Services section (pages 9-26).

Many organisations offer services in multiple locations across Queensland. These statewide organisations are listed in the section titled "Queensland-Wide Services" (pages 9 – 26). This includes charities operating in multiple locations, or providing many different types of services, and State and Federal Government departments. You can also visit the online HandyGuide at www.thehandyguide.com.au to search for services by type or postcode to identify the most suitable service to help you.

To ensure you can identify the best services for you:

- Refer to Queensland- Wide Services section (pages 9-26) for organisations which operate across Queensland or nationally but may also provide local assistance.
- Refer to the relevant Regional section to identify services local to you.
